

UK Stewardship Code

The Stewardship Code (“Code”) is published and overseen by the Financial Reporting Council. The Code sets stewardship standards to ensure the responsible allocation, management and oversight of capital to create a long-term value for clients and beneficiaries leading to sustainable benefits for the economy, the environment and society. It is a voluntary code.

Under COBS 2.2.3R of the Financial Conduct Authority Handbook, each of Brookfield Global Property Advisor Limited, Brookfield Global Business Advisor Limited, Brookfield Global Infrastructure Advisor Limited, Brookfield Global Renewable Energy Advisor Limited are each required to disclose clearly on its website:

1. the nature of its commitment to the Code; or
2. where it does not commit to the code, its alternative investment strategy.

Brookfield is a signatory to the United Nations-supported Principles for Responsible Investment, formally demonstrating our ongoing commitment to responsible investment and environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) best practices. Brookfield believes that our business principles and integration of ESG considerations throughout our investment management process, are generally aligned with the 12 principles of the Code. Brookfield has global operations and takes a global approach to ESG, consequently, the above entities do not consider it appropriate to commit to any particular voluntary code of practice relating to any individual jurisdiction at this time. Brookfield continually monitors voluntary codes and standards and will continue to evaluate the 2020 version of the Code.
