We are grateful for this recognition, which reflects the strength of our team and our franchise.

Private Real Estate Investor, Infrastructure Investor, Private Debt Investor and Private Equity International selected award winners by researching news sources to compile a list of finalists, vetting those finalists and soliciting votes from readers. Brookfield has not investigated and does not know the makeup of voters for these awards, and a different set of voters may have reached different results. Awards are not necessarily representative of a particular investor's experience or predictive of the future performance of any Brookfield fund or transaction. Brookfield did not pay any fees associated with these awards. Other investment firms may have received similar awards based on the same or different criteria.
